About This Game

While playing "Jump to the circle" you will find a really funny gameplay with challenging gameplay and a random generated levels.

In this game you will control an arrow that spins around circles that are across the levels. The circles are also surrounded by some "gears" that destroy your arrow with the minimal touch.

The gameplay advances vertically, between two walls, so the "gameplay space" is narrow and short.

What to expect:

-Minimalist style that fits perfect with the game style.

-Challenging gameplay.

-Random generated levels.

How to play:

-Left mouse click to jump with the arrow.
